Winning prize: Nintendo switch

This Hanukkah, families are invited to create their own original menorah to enter into the CCJCC Family Menorah Competition. Contestants will join via ZOOM and exhibit their creation to our panel of judges. The winning prize is a Nintendo Switch with Neon Blue & Neon Red Joy Con. If a family is affiliated with a Jewish organization, synagogue or youth group, that organization will receive a bonus prize of $200. Photos of all of the submitted menorahs will be displayed online at underonetent.org, with the winner highlighted.

Rules: Build a Menorah from Junk You Have Accumulated at Home

We all have been stuck at home for months and have made the best of it. Now let's make the best menorah out of household items (including food) that we have accumulated. This contest will give you the chance to look at everyday items with new eyes and create something meaningful and beautiful. It is permissible to purchase something to complete your project, such as glue, thumb tacks, etc. However, most of the materials you use must be household or food items you already have on hand.

Your menorah will be judged on the following criteria: whole family involvement, originality, innovation, creativity and environmental sustainability.

To enter the contest, sign up at underonetent.org. Open to all ages.

Participating synagogues & organizations: American—Israeli Council, Beth Chaim Cong., Chabad of CC, Cong. B'nai Shalom, Cong. B'nai Tikvah, CC Jewish Day School, CC Midrasha, Shevet Egoz and Temple Isaiah.
