

“THE LOST KITCHEN” An Author Event with Miriam Green

Sunday, July 12, 7:30 PM by ZOOM

You don't have to be a caregiver to benefit from hearing Miriam Green talk about her book The Lost Kitchen: Reflections and Recipes from an Alzheimer's Caregiver. A 28-year long resident of Israel, Miriam uses humor and recipes to share her story about her family's journey. Her blog appears on the Alzheimer's Association blogsite and she has recently presented a TEDx Talk. The Lost Kitchen is available on Amazon and from your local bookstore.
