

THE CONTRA COSTA PERFORMANCE OF
THE VIOLINS OF HOPE CONCERT: ALONG THE TRADE ROUTE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 7:00 PM

“EXTRAORDINARY! A POWERFULLY MOVING CONCERT THAT CELEBRATES THE REMARKABLE RESILIENCE OF THE HUMAN SPIRIT.” -SANDRA STERNBERG

The Violins of Hope Concert: Along the Trade Route
Thursday, January 30, 7:00 PM
Congregation B'nai Shalom, 74 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek

This concert coincides with the 75th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz, one of the many concentration camps where Jewish musicians were forcibly directed to perform. Each of our musicians will play a violin once owned and played by a prisoner in a Nazi camp, now repurposed as an instrument of peace, social justice and hope. These master violinists represent traditions from around the world including:

- Cookie Segelstein, Klezmer Violin
- Emmanuel During, Persian and Oriental Violin
- Darcy Noonan, Irish Fiddle
- Suzy Thompson, Cajun Fiddle

Pre-admission: $36; At-the-door: $45. VIP seating and post-concert reception: $72. For tickets, visit underonetent.org. A limited number of free youth tickets are available by calling 925.322.0958. Underwriting opportunities available by emailing office@bshalom.org.

This program is part of Violins of Hope San Francisco Bay Area presented in association with Music at Kohl Mansion, Burlingame, CA.
